meet the ROSE Family!

Family names: Jordan, Jason, Logan (11), and Carson (8)
Street Name: Nauni Valley Drive in Paradise Valley

Profession(s):
Jordan is the founder and president of the largest law firm owned by a woman in AZ history, handling real estate, zoning, family law, lobbying state agencies, litigation, cyberlaw, cyber privacy, cyber defamation, medical marijuana, renewable energy, water law, estate planning, corporate law, DUI's, school law, ADA compliance issues and employment law. She focuses her practice on land use zoning, real estate, and lobbying state agencies.

She is also the co-owner/publisher of The Dealmaker by Rose Law Group and Belfiore, a daily real estate publication highlighting the top 5 Arizona related real estate stories each weekday and read by a who's who of those in the real estate business in Arizona.

In conjunction with her estate/asset protection department at RLG she has just launched The RLG Elder Care Concierge Service, an all-inclusive service that seeks to remove the burdens and stresses of caregiving, by assessing, addressing, managing, and handling the many needs, decisions, responsibilities and legal hurdles one faces caring for an aging loved one. Our ultimate goal is to remove the worry and stress, provide you with peace of mind and the ability to solely focus on spending quality time with your parent, friend, relative or spouse during those crucial latter years.

Called "Arizona's PR Heavyweight" by Arizona Business Magazine Jason is the President, Founder & Co-Owner of Rose+Moser+Allyn Public & Online Relations, which he launched in 1996 at the age of 26. He has represented over 500 of Arizona's most notable clients, companies and causes from Presidential candidates to Fortune 500 Companies. He is considered the pre-eminent crisis communications expert in the state and also specializes in political consulting, public affairs, public relations and events. His creative client work and expertise has resulted in hundreds of national and local media interviews including the New York Times, Washington Post, USA Today, NPR and Los Angeles Times.

In 2011, the company created and produced what is now the Bentley Scottsdale Polo Championships, the most attended polo event in the United States held annually in Scottsdale. It's been called the "best polo event in the world" by the Captain of the Wales Polo Team and returns to Scottsdale November 11th and 12th. Rose and his partners have also launched other event concepts they now own such as the Stella Artois Derby Dayclub at Turf Paradise, the Fiesta Bowl Rugby & Balloon Classic and Scottsdale Beat The Heat: The Hottest Race on Earth.

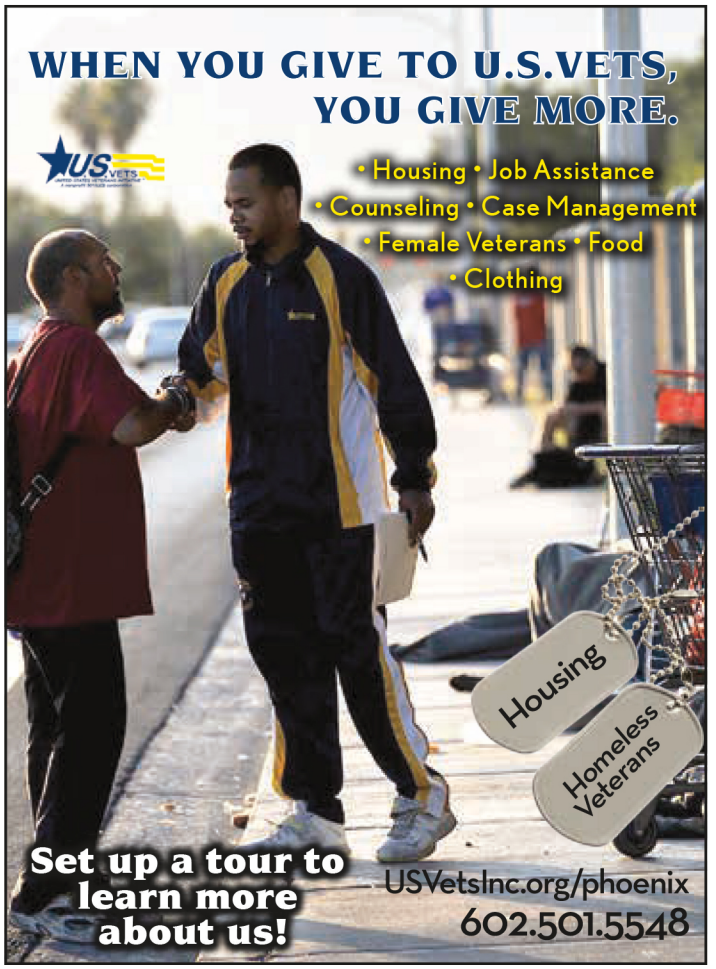
Do you have any family traditions?
We do a night before Christmas talent show for family and friends. Every year we take our entire family on both sides (24 people, 11 kids under the age of 13) to a big house we rent somewhere in the world to do something fun - we're blessed everyone gets along so well!

What college/university did you attend?
Jordan: Univ. of AZ undergraduate and ASU law school.
Jason: Occidental College in Los Angeles.

Where are you originally from?
Jordan: Dublin, Ohio
Jason: Phoenix



How long have you lived in this neighborhood?
17 years, eight in the house we are in now

What do you like to do to relax?
Jordan: Play golf with our kids, dinner with my husband or read the news.
Jason: Attend my kids' games. See as much of Arizona and the world as I can. Hike.

How are you involved in the community?
Jordan: I'm on the Phx Country Day School Board of Trustees, a mentor in the Urban Land Institutes young leaders program, president of Pinal Partnership, on the American Heart Association Heart Ball committee, and the Canadian American Business Council. Jason: I currently serve on the Board of Directors for Arizona Cardinal's running back David Johnson's new charity having recently done the same for Patrick Peterson's. I previously served as the Vice Chairman of the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art

If you have kids, what activities are they involved with?
Both are highly competitive baseball and basketball players. They also golf and play flag football.

What is your favorite part about living in your neighborhood?
Jordan: Waking up every day to the view of Camelback Mountain.
Jason: Being in the middle of the best Paradise Valley has to offer. Four great resorts within walking distance. Camelback and Mummy Mountain. El Chorro. We're at Main and Main while still feeling a bit rural.
